

Purpose: Problem - Solution

Title: Aunt Eater Follows a Sweater

Characters?

Aunt Eater
Miss Wainscot
Mr. Bundy
Pat the Mynah bird

Setting?

Hotel Bathwater

Problem

Miss Wainscot's diamond ring is missing.

Solution

Aunt Eater discovers that Pat has Miss Wainscot's diamond ring and other shiny things.

List the EVENTS on the back.

Events

1. Aunt Eater calls Mr. Bundy, the hotel detective.
 2. Aunt Eater notices that her sweater is missing.
 3. She sees a piece of yarn on the windowsill, and follows it until she comes to Pat the Mynah bird.
-

Notes:

- Event #1 does not have to be included, and Event #3 can be split into two.
- Event #2 can be mistaken as the “Problem” of the story, but the story is not about finding Aunt Eater’s sweater. Rather, it helps her to solve the bigger problem – that of the missing ring.
- Pat should be mentioned in the last event, or in the solution, as it is he who is responsible for the missing ring.

Sample Introductory Sentences	Sample Concluding Sentences
In the story Aunt Eater Follows a Sweater ,there is a mystery at Hotel Bathwater. ...Aunt Eater goes on vacation and has to solve a mystery.	As you can see, ... In summary, ... Hence,Aunt Eater solves the mystery at Hotel Bathwater. ...Aunt Eater solves the mystery of the missing ring.

Story Map Writing: Aunt Eater Follows a Sweater
Problem – Solution

In the story Aunt Eater Follows a Sweater, Aunt Eater has a mystery to solve at Hotel Bathwater. Miss Wainscot's diamond ring is missing. First, Aunt Eater calls Mr. Bundy, the hotel detective. Next, she notices that her sweater is missing. Finally, she sees a piece of yarn on the windowsill, and she follows it until she comes to Pat the Mynah bird. Aunt Eater discovers that Pat has Miss Wainscot's diamond ring and other shiny things. As you can see, Aunt Eater solves the mystery of the missing ring.