Purpose: _Problem – Solution_

Title: Aunt Eater Tastes Some Soup

Characters?

Aunt Eater
Professor Slagbottom
Cook

Setting?

Garden
Kitchen

Problem

Professor Slagbottom's rare bone is missing.

Solution

Professor Slagbottom's bone is in the soup.

List the EVENTS on the back.

Events

1. Aunt Eater asks Professor Slagbottom where he went that morning, and learns he went to the kitchen.

2. They decide to look in the kitchen first.

3. They find Professor Slagbottom's bone when they taste the cook's soup.

Notes:
- Event #1 answers the question: "What is the first thing Aunt Eater did to try to solve this problem?"
- Event #3 may vary. For example: "They taste some soup and it tastes awful so they look in the pot."

Sample Introductory Sentences	Sample Concluding Sentences
In the story Aunt Eater Tastes Some Soup, … … Professor Slagbottom needs Aunt Eater to help him solve a problem. ….there is a mysterious dinosaur bone called a Swinesaurus. …Aunt Eater has a mystery to solve.	As you can see, … In summary, … Hence, … …Aunt Eater solves the mystery of the missing bone.

Story Map Writing: Aunt Eater Tastes Some Soup
Problem – Solution

In the story Aunt Eater Tastes Some Soup, Professor Slagbottom needs Aunt Eater to help him solve a problem. The professor's rare bone is missing. First, Aunt Eater asks Professor Slagbottom where he went that morning, and she learns that he went to the kitchen. Next, they go to the kitchen. They taste some soup and it tastes awful, so they look in the pot. Professor Slagbottom's bone is in the soup. As you can see, Aunt Eater solves the mystery of the missing bone.